

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

DURING THE COURSE

The Platform Course

During your professional development course, you will complete asynchronous activities. You will engage in learning by exploring articles, watching videos, collaborating with your peers and much more. You will receive feedback from your cohort peers and your instructor following the activity submissions.

AFTER THE COURSE

Connecting with Educators

Optional - Through your work and collaboration with educators from around the globe, you can build a network that expands beyond the one-week PD course.

START OF THE COURSE

Zoom Virtual Class

The PD course will kick off with a 1-hour virtual class. During this time, you will meet your cohort candidates along with your instructor. This will be a time to engage in discussions about the PD content.

Professional Development Credit

Moreland University awards Continuing Education Units (blocks of clock hours) upon successful completion of activities. We offer them in blocks of 15 clock hours (1 CEU = 15 clock hours). We offer 1, 2, or 4 CEU courses.

AFTER THE COURSE

Impact on Teaching and Students

The information, strategies, and ideas you will discover throughout your Teach-Now PD will positively impact your teaching and your students now and for years to come.
